Last Kiss

Guillemots

There's something
Oh, so unusual
About the way you say you're sorry
Over and over again
There's something
Oh, so unusual
About the way you say you're sorry
Over and over again
One love, one last kiss
One last man prowling the sky
One dream, one last kiss
One last love, lost in the sky
There's something
Oh, so unusual
About the way you say you're sorry
Over and over again
Dry those tears in your eyes
Let your heart cry
Dry those tears in your eyes
Let your heart cry
One love, one last kiss
One last man prowling the sky

One dream, one last kiss
One last love, lost in the sky
One love, one last kiss
One last man prowling the sky
One dream, one last kiss
One last love, lost in the sky
How can you look at me and smile
After all and everything you said?
There are things about you
That don't fit together in my head
Because you lie
And you cry
And you cry
And you lie
And you lie
And you lie

And you cry
And you lie
And you cry
And you lie
And you lie
