

The Weapon Breaker

Becoming the Archetype

This is the day you die
Murder and hatred
Infliction of pain
And creation of sorrow
Total annihilation
Destruction of souls that I've redeemed
Obliteration of lives I created
The scars of your lives
And the sounds of your cries
Destruction, obliteration
Destruction of souls that I've redeemed
All these shall see their end
I will destroy your destructive desires
And nothing shall remain except
The life you live in Me
All these shall see their end
