Illumination

Paul Weller

I close my eyes but sleep won't come
You're in my waking dreams
It's a feeling right inside of me
'Til you're in my arms againThe prayer I ask is where I'm going to Without your undying love
I'm as worthless as a cold, cold sun
That shines for no one at allHow many time must I return
From distant oceans just to learn
That with your song
Illumination comesI close my eyes and I hear no one
I'm in a moving film
It's black and white and beautiful
And it has no end to write
