

Have You Ever Had the Blues?

Lloyd Price

Didn't know which way to go
Didn't know day from night or left from right
Boy you really had the blues

Have you ever sat and cried
And didn't know the reason why
Have you ever been alone and watched the telephone Oh you really had the blues

repeat twice

I don't know what love is
But this is one thing I know
Somebody's got to help me
These blues have got to go
I got the blues
Whoa I'm feeling mighty sad well this looks like the end my friend
Oh I really got the blues
