Agony and Ecstasy

Savatage

Listen to me from deep down inside
I'm the madness that just will not die
With no regrets of what I'll do to you
Before the night is over, you'll be crawling to meCall me when you're weak
For me you'll lie and cheat
You'll never get away
With me you're here to stayListen D.T. can't you see
You stay with me and you'll be free
Even as I soothe your soul
I tear you down and make you oldYou just keep on coming back
To buy another nickel sack
Twelve o'clock time to greet
Agony and ecstasyEcstasyI'm the cries from within
When the day begins
You know you'll follow me like sheep
This shepherd never sleepsTell me what's your price
Come skate on my ice
My blades, they never rust
I'm asking you to trustListen now the time is right
And what a way to start the night
Spend your money endlessly
Another grand insanitySo D.T. here is the plan
I'll make your brain a rubber band
Time to stretch it out and greet
Agony and ecstasyEcstasy
Ecstasy
Ecstasy
EcstasyFeel my whisper through your haze of pain
Hear the calling of the neon vein
See my name upon your soul's marquee
I am agony and ecstasyAnd just remember
If you ever need me, I'm here
