If You're Gonna Fall

Kimberly Caldwell

Nobody wrote these words that I'm saying
It was all a matter of fact
Life isn't always like a movie
You can't walk out and get your money backI'm not sure I believe that you and me
Were brought together by a twist of fate
I'm gonna love you like nobody loves you anywayI can't picture a fairytale ending
'Cause you weren't what I had in mind
But every day with you is something that I choose
And baby, that's why it's rightOh, I'm not gonna try an original line
'Cause every song has been used up
There's nobody like, no here's nobody like the two of usSo if you're gonna fall for anything
If you're gonna fall for anything
I am here in flesh and blood
Something you can see, something you can feel
If you're gonna fall, fall for something realYou can add up all the moments
Come into conclusions that you want
But while you're looking for perfection
You forget about all the good things you gotOh, and I can't prove there's no one better for you
But I can promise you all the same
I'm gonna love you like nobody loves you anywaySo if you're gonna fall for anything
If you're gonna fall for anything
I am here in flesh and blood
Something you can see, something you can feel
If you're gonna fall, fall for something realYou will find you may never know
What really works and what's for sure
Not everything fits in its place
Make room for all your beautiful mistakes
