Shanti

he said goodbye and turned away and he didn't show how his heart ached and he said "she's amazing" and he said "i must be crazy" "'cause she's amazing" she walks alone down the road and she doesn't show the pain that she knows and she says "he's amazing" and she says "i must be crazy" "'cause he's amazing" so she turned to ask why and he wiped the tears from her eyes he said "we can't let this die" "'cause we're amazing, we're amazing, yeah" "we're amazing" and they said "we're amazing" and they said "we must've been crazy" "'cause we're amazing"
