

My Best Wasn't Good Enough

Kane

Let's say I'm feeling better
Let's say I'm feeling fine
Let's say I gave you all I had
And now I'm out of time And my best wasn't good enough
Yeah And now this time to wonder
Now this time to heal
Time to let it all come down
But I don't know what I feel But it aches and it hurts and it burns
Oh, it kills me Tick, tock, you don't stop
You don't fade, you just stay
But I'll do it all again Tick, tock, you don't stop
You don't fade, you just stay
But I'll do it all again Now don't you call me baby
Just don't pretend you care
Save your sorry for yourself
When Judas takes you there, oh yeah Once I really believed
There was nothing out there for the lost and lonely
But a voice in my head kept banging on my heart
Says you're not the only one But it kills me Tick, tock, you don't stop
You don't fade, you just stay
But I'll do it all again Tick, tock, you don't stop
You don't fade, you just stay
But I'll do it all again Do it all again
I'll do it all again
I'll do it all again
I'll do it all again
I'll do it all again
I'll do it all again Tick, tock, you don't stop
You don't fade, you just stay
But I'll do it all again Tick, tock, you don't stop
You don't fade, you just stay, you just stay
But I'll do it all again Tick, tock, you don't stop
You don't fade, you just stay
You just stay, just stay
You just stay, just stay
[Incomprehensible] Tick, tock, you don't stop
You don't fade, you just stay
Baby, gonna do it all again
