

All I Had I Gave

Hatebreed

How long have I given all I've got?
And here I stand
My days and nights now are solitude
I struggle on, I've paid my priceAll I had I gave
All I had I gaveSo much still lingers inside my head
I've lost it all
No trace of tolerance I can find
An empty heart, I've paid my priceAll I had I gave
All I had I gave
Save all that you feel for me
Save all that you feel for me
