These Walls

Tedeschi Trucks Band

She wakes up in the morning
To a kettle on the stove
Peeling wallpaper
House next to a dusty roadShe prays oh lord
Don't let these walls fall down'Cause she's got no money
But she works like hell
She loved him like a lady
Never did her too wellShe prays oh lord
Don't let these walls fall down'Cause it's been so damn hard
Since her man left townSays I've been thinking,
I've been thinking, I've been thinking,
'Bout you baby
For such a long long timeShe can't help but wonder
On those rainy Saturdays
Where he is and where he's been
Is another trapped in his haze?She prays oh lord
Don't let these walls fall down'Cause she's not lonely
And she's learned to get along
But how many years will it take
Before he is really gone?She prays oh lord
Don't let these walls fall down'Cause it's been so damn hard
Since her man left townSays I've been thinking
I've been thinking, I've been thinking
'Bout you baby
For such a long long timeSays I've been thinking
I've been thinking, I've been thinking
'Bout you baby
For such a long long timeSays I've been thinking
I've been thinking, I've been thinking
'Bout you baby
For such a long long time
