

Hit a Guy With Glasses

Voodoo Glow Skulls

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

My blood is really boiling
And I've got fire in my eyes
There is no compromising
Once we get outside The buttons have been pushed
And all systems are go
He's going to pay the price
With all four of his eyes I just hit a guy with glasses
Would you hit a guy with glasses? Will someone please explain to me
Who made that wacky rule
If you hit a guy with glasses
You won't look very cool The science club is pissed and they are after me
They want compensation for the optometry
