

Renegade

Eva Simons

Put it up
Put it up
Put it up
Put it up oh, oh
Yeah From clubs to the blocks
People wan' do things
Don't wanna be 'last year'
Eyes are on, pressure's on Guns don't stop
The primitive talkin',
Much about nothing
It's never done, never done But yea, survival's for the strong
So just be what you want to be
Ah yeah, ah yeah, ah yeah, Me, I'm a renegade, plus not into youuuu
I won't be watching and pointing
Too busy
Destiny's calling
Not into youuuu
Ain't saying anything,
Ain't saying anything Yeah I'm a renegade, plus
And only I, I can run this life
O-o-o-o-oh
Can't price me, I'm priceless
So you can't put no tags on me
Without me erupting No key to unlock
I switch without warning
I'm raw how I'm rolling
What I am, is who I am, all I am Won't hold back
Don't expect no apology
If not I'll be coming
Understand, I'm keeping it moving Cause if you can't be yourself
You're a shell
And can't be anyone else
Could never be
Success is being who you are
You only! Me, I'm a renegade, plus
Not into youuuu
I won't be watching and pointing

Too busy
Destiny's calling
Not into youuuu
Ain't saying anything,
Ain't saying anything, Yeah I'm a renegade, plus
And only I, I can run this life
O-o-o-o-oh
Can't price me, I'm priceless
So you can't put no tags on me
Without me erupting My light will keep on shining on
Do what feels right
To me, myself and I
What ever comes I'm standing strong
Reinventing everything I know My light will keep on shining bright
Be what I want, only I define
The rules of how I live my life
Mold's I'm breaking, as I'm rocking now O-o-o-o-oh
So walk the way you're walking now
Do your thing as you blaze your trail Yeah walk the way you walk
Let the eyes that see you
Take you just the way you are tonight The only one to please is yourself,
Believe me, that's what makes you a star Me, I'm a renegade, plus
And only I, I can run this life
O-o-o-o-oh
Can't price me, I'm priceless
So you can't put no tags on me
Without me erupting Not watching anything that they're saying
All, it all... Oh, decisions I'm the one who's making
All, them all... I'm me and there will be no faking
No, no-o-oh So you can't put no tags on me
Without me erupting
