Flower Man

Tonic

Flower man, flower man, when are you gonna grow?
When are you gonna lay down everything you know?
Flower man, flower man, how are you gonna sleep
With all these people cutting down your feet?Flower man
(Flower man)
Flower man
(Flower man)Flower man, flower man, your head's above the rest
If you're gonna trust them they gotta pass the test
Flower man, flower man, you've living in the sun
Shattered and hollow you shine for everyone, ohFlower man
(Flower man)
Flower man
(Flower man)Taken enough to hurt you and all the things they say
So you put on your armor and stand in the way
You're wearing the target that took so long to earnAnd you start looking sideways with every turn
And you start looking sideways with every turn
OhFlower man
(Flower man)
Flower man
(Flower man)Flower man
(Flower man)
Flower man
(Flower man)
Flower man
