Truly Loved

Drew Seeley

I know, you dont want somebody to save you guarding your heart 'cause you've been hurt before so unsure, but you're just scared afraid to trust anybody 'cause the impression of life, you've been sold, has left you cold but you dont know how it feels to be loved, truly loved by somebody who will surrender it all to you like i would baby you know how it feels to be alone you know how it feels to be lied to but you dont know how it feels to be loved truly loved, truly loved let it go... tear down the walls that surround you and i'll build my world around you soul to soul, i will show you you dont know how it feels

to be loved, truly loved
by somebody who
will surrender it all to you
like i would baby
you know how it feels to be lonely
you know how it feels to be lied to
but you dont know how it feels to be loved truly loved, truly loved, truly loved give me a chance to prove that you dont know what you're missing
you dont know how it feels
to be loved, truly loved
by somebody who
will surrender it all to you
like i would baby
you know how it feels to be lonely
you know how it feels to be lied to
but you dont know how it feels to be loved truly loved, to be loved,

to be loved, truly loved
truly loved

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/