Oh, What a Time to Be Me

Randy Travis

I'm sorry you're feeling so lonely
I know how hard it can be
You lost your one and your only
You told her you had to be freeYou say that you think she's found somebody new
Who gives her the love that she needs
Well, it's safe to say, it's a bad day for you
But oh, what a time to be meYou say that you just had to call her
To tell her you knew, you were wrong
You're thinking you mis-dialed her number
Just because I answered the phoneI hate to be the one to have to break it to you
But you got it accurately
Now it's safe to say, it's a sad day for you
But oh, what a time to be meRemember those kisses, you used to receive
They sure feel good on my cheek
And now that you mentioned it, I can't believe
That anyone could ever leave a love so sweetWell, I truly hope that we can still be friends
It's hard to find a buddy like you
And you're more than welcome to call me again
But right now I got something to doAnd oh by the way here's a message for you
Would you mind returning her key
There's somebody else that she's giving it to
And oh, what a time to be meRemember those kisses you used to receive
They sure feel good on my cheek
And now that you mentioned it, I can't believe
That anyone could ever leave a love so sweetNow I truly hope that we can still be friends
It's hard to find a buddy like you
And you're more than welcome to call me again
But right now I got something to doAnd oh by the way here's a message for you
Would you mind returning her key
There's somebody else that she's giving it to
And oh, what a time to be meYeah, it's safe to say it's a sad day for you
But oh, what a time to be me
