

If He Only Knew

Nubomb

Verse 1

Treat your lady right or somebody will
If she's a Scorpio
The ring on her finger won't keep her from playing the field
That's your ass if she's also paying the bills
How you gone move her to the hood from the hills
Come on dawg get your mind right
Got her working 40 hours
While your working part time
She ain't Brittany and you sure ain't Fetterline
That's why she ain't been home on time in months
That's why she lies and you guys are having problems with trust
If you think she's a cheater
Leave her
Don't beat her
Believe me there's other beaver
That looks meaner
Wearing your wife beaters
Got her gone on that medina
Mixing Jen and tequila
Wanting to kick it with the boner like Mike Seaver
Or see her in the nude
Getting blew
In the hotel room
Telling me how I do it better than you
The girl really ain't home before 2 because she's looking for something new
Some one who
Ain't you
Hate you so much she singing

Hook

If he only knew
The things we do
You'd have him saying
Bye bye and I'm never coming back
Girl I thought you were the one
But you and him ruined that
And if he only knew
The things that we do

It just might be the best thing that happen to you
If he found out where you been
I know Iâ€™m the reason why
You stop loving him.

Verse 2

Sheâ€™s a creature of the night chick
Sneak peak double feature
Borderline bi, bitch
Fighting with her man
The girl hit me on the sidekick
Lie and tell this fool that sheâ€™s been kickin it with Issis
Straight to the telly in that juicy sweat suit with bottle of schnapps
Smelling like channel coca
With that ring blinging fresh out the box
Youâ€™re taught to never mow another mans lawn
But if it wasnâ€™t his to begin with Forget it, itâ€™s on
And yo the truth hurt donâ€™t it
Show up at your spot in some new cloths glowing
Knowin that youâ€™re knowin that this Ho had a bro tapping the back of her throat
She swallowed it
And then you kissed her when she got home.
It ainâ€™t a secret
She tells all of her friends too
Put my CD on skip to track number 2
Turn it up if you think itâ€™s for you
You think itâ€™s the truth?
Or that girl you gave that ring to is singing with Nicole like.

Hook

If he only knew
The things we do
Youâ€™d have him saying
Bye bye and Iâ€™m never coming back
Girl I thought you were the one
But you and him ruined that
And if he only knew
The things that we do
It just might be the best thing that happen to you
If he found out where you been
I know Iâ€™m the reason why
You stop loving him.

Bridge

One time in the parking lot
I think another time we did it in a parking garage
And then a couple more times in a cheap hotel
And yo this dude canâ€™t say shit cause sheâ€™s paying his bills

Verse 3

Itâ€™s a little late to same Iâ€™m home wreckin
I wreckin it was wrecked
Way before the very first time me and her met
Iâ€™m the catalyst
That keeps an average bitch
Thinking sheâ€™s a model or an actress
Till Iâ€™m shoving her face in the mattress.
If I were you
And found out all the things we do
Behind your back
Iâ€™d tell her Iâ€™ll be back
And come back strapped
Just laughing
Like everything is ok
Waiving the gauge in her place
Tell her to look me in the eyes
And blow my brains her face!
