

Love Will Find a Way

Shawn Mullins

Was it right, was it wrong?
Were you fighting for so long?
Did you try, did you stray?
Did you turn the other way? Was it too much to ask?
Were you tethered to your past?
Did you stay
Hoping love would find a way? What you got you can't hide
But it's tangled up inside
Where you walk, where you stand
Got the world in the palm of your hand Where you've been, where you're going?
All you ever need to know
Is that love, sweet love's gonna find a way
Yeah, yeah, yeah Take a good look around
You got both feet on the ground
Kiss the pain, taste the truth
While you hang on to your youth You can fly far away
And dream of yesterday
And pray
Pray that love's gonna find a way What you got you can't hide
But it's tangled up inside
Where you walk, where you stand
Got the world in the palm of your hand Where you've been, where you're going?
All you ever need to know
Is that love, sweet love's gonna find a way Baby, love's gonna find a way
Yeah, love's gonna find a way
