Over Your Shoulder

Concrete Blonde

Here we go
Oh noWherever you go
Whatever you do
Wherever you are, I'm watching you [Incomprehensible]
There I amI'm watching you eat
I'm watching you sleep
I see you in between your sheets
Oh no, there I amOver your shoulder
Over your shoulder
Over your shoulder
Oh no, there I am againMy eyes, when you see
My ears, when you hear
You can't get away from the face in the mirror
No, no, no, no, no
There I amWherever you go
However you do it
Baby, I'm the only one true to you
There I amOver your shoulder
Over your shoulder
Over your shoulder
Oh no, there I am, there I am againEverything we did
Everything we said
If ever you're with another
I'll be in your bed
Oh no, 'cause there I amTrying to forget my face and my name
As hard as you can
It won't be the same at all
And you know there I amOver your shoulder
Over your shoulder
Over your shoulder
Oh no, there I am againOver your shoulder
Over your shoulder
Over your shoulder
Oh no, there I am, there I am againAgain and again
