

Untasted Honey

Kathy Mattea

I'll be leaving when the sun is on the rise
I can see the sorrow shining deep inside your eyes
 But this life that I've been living
Has grown to a routineSo I'm headed for somewhere
 I've been in my dreams
 Oh, I wanna go where a soul feels alive
And the untasted honey waits in the hiveYeah, I wanna be where a free spirit thrives
 And the untasted honey waits in the hive
 You were faithful as a lover and a friend
All the good times and the bad, I'd live them once againBut I'd never be contented
 With a family and a ring
 Better open your window
I'm a bird on the wingOh, I wanna go where a soul feels alive
 And the untasted honey waits in the hive
 Yeah, I wanna be where a free spirit thrives
And the untasted honey waits in the hiveCall it heaven on earth
 Call it fools paradise
 Gonna find where it's hidden
Even if it takes all my lifeOh, I wanna go where a soul feels alive
 And the untasted honey waits in the hive
 Yeah, I wanna be where a free spirit thrives
 And the untasted honey waits in the hive
