

Soon As My Heart Breaks

Taylor Dayne

Soon as my heart breaks
Soon as my mind starts telling me
That Ive had enough
That Ive given all I got to you With nothing in return
Soon as my heart breaks
Soon as my soul
Stops aching for you Then Ill be alright
Maybe I can sleep the night
Knowing that Im free again
But how can I walk on Knowing youre the only one I need
Cant you see me?
Soon as my heart breaks
Soon as I hide the tears I cry That you will never know
Holding back the side of me
That longs to leave
But cant let go
And how can I move on? Knowing your love is the one I need
Cant you see me?
'Cause if my heart breaks
Ill have to find the strength
