The Joys of Heaven

When I think about what waits for me , Its more than I can tell
Singing around the throne of God while ages roll
John described the city on the banks where Jordan's waters swell
While he wrote so long ago still thrills my soul

CHORUS

Oh the joys of heaven where the son of God is shining
Like reflected from the gold and precious stone
Though the sorrow and the heartache never more the sad repining
When the gates are open God will show us all joys share
When we leave this world when Jesus takes us home

Their will be a sea of glass like shining crystal in that city by the river God will grow the tree of life
I will feast on heavens mana and the Saints will all be with me at the Masters invitation come and dine !!
