Self Sabotage

Tokyo Taboo

I'm so bored
Bored of being alive
I'm waiting
For the man up in the sky
To show me some reason for my life, my life, my life

It all seems
So hopeless so futile
This stone filled
world is just a lie
My skin feels Metallic like the bars I'm in, I'm in

I rip all my scars
I feel, feel feel
Then I'm numb

There's no way
Out of my own hell
I sabo-sabotage myself
An impulse
That comes from deep within, within, within
My brain's filled
With thoughts of my decay
I'm anxious foolish and afraid
My fear keeps getting in my way, my way, my way

I rip all my scars
I feel, feel feel
Then I'm numb
I drink
Then I'm drunk
Look, look look
What I've become

I rip all my scars
I feel, feel feel
Then I'm numb
I rip all my scars
I feel, feel feel

Then I'm numb
I drink
Then I'm drunk
Look, look look
What I've become
