Smile

The Story So Far

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

know its been a while but I will not fake this stupid smile
'cause you robbed me, fed me the line
Your bounty was me took all you could see
And worked just side by side
The trust and love we'd abide
Until you left home thrust with the tide
And put this hate back inside my eyesAre you blocking all the things that have to do with me?
Is it easier now, do you feel any release?
Tell me how you fit in and where do you begin?
Do you toast when they toast?
Do you sin when they sin?Stepped through your place
Lust in my eyes toyed with deceit
Planted your lies
Play it off well, say that I'm fine
Do I hold that small space in your mind?
Stuck in your web flailing my arms
Trying to break loose from your charm
Split up your mind do you some harm
No stranger to harmHow can I see anyone anymore?
And how can I feel anything anymore?
