Heaven

Stryper

I am standing, even though I've been to hell and back
Taking off and landing, with my heart in place and faith intact
I won't give up, even though the odds, they tell me to
I'm here with a purpose, every word I say and thing I doMy destiny will never die
I'll never guess or wonder whyI choose Heaven, I choose Heaven
I choose HeavenThis world spins, every deed that's done, misunderstood
At times it's a no-win situation to defend what's good
It takes courage to look the devil in the eyes
And say "get away", I can see right through your cheap disguiseI'm on a narrow path, I know
Hard to fit in but even soI choose Heaven, confession
I choose Heaven, I choose HeavenI choose Heaven, accession
I choose Heaven
I choose Heaven, onfession
Accession, I choose Heaven
