

Shine On

Ladi6

Breaking hearts, minds,
I do apologize
It's not my way,
I hate to make you feel uncomfortableTake a load off,
Or you can put it right on me.
It would be my pleasure to unburden you,
ActuallyI see you, you see me,
And I know that you are down.
I wanna pick you up from where I see ya,
Lying on the ground
Trust in me,
I'll take your broken heart home to fix,
Cause you're generally on my lips,
Whisper my promisesAll your strengths and weaknesses too,
Baby to me you are a star,
So shine on
All your strengths and weaknesses too,
Baby to me you are a star,
So shine onWell I know you feel defeat,
But if you trust in my heartbeat,
Feel the pulse right by your ear,
Only for you I will be here
Let me hold you now,
The chemistry between us,
I feel the power
