Tryin' To Hide A Fire In The Dark

Billy Dean

From the thoughts that I've been thinkin'
I should think of an alibi
Though I'm innocent, I've still got a guilty mind
There's no place that I can turn to
When she turns out the lights
To keep her from seein' you
Burnin' in my eyesIt's like tryin' to hide a fire in the dark
Carrin' around this torch in my heart
I cannot conceal it, I cannot put it out
It's like tryin' to hide a fire in the dark
Tryin' to fight a flame I never meant to start
It's out of control and nothin' can help me now
No, no, no, no, noAt first it was no problem
Flickering thoughts of you now and then
Nothin' intimate that she could call a sin
Then you sparked my imagination
Temptation 'bout to drive me wild
And these flares of desire you can see for milesIt's like tryin' to hide a fire in the dark
Carrin' around this torch in my heart
I cannot conceal it, I cannot put it out
It's like tryin' to hide a fire in the dark
Tryin' to fight a flame I never meant to start
It's out of control, nothin' can help me now, now, ohIt's like tryin' to hide a fire in the dark
Carrin' around this torch in my heart
I cannot conceal it, I cannot put it out
It's like tryin' to hide a fire in the dark
Tryin' to fight a flame I never meant to start
It's out of control, nothin' can help me nowIt's like tryin' to hide a fire in the dark
Carrin' around this torch in my heart
I cannot conceal it, I cannot put it out
