Feels Like Redemption

Michael English

I know how hopeless feels
When you're staring at the bottom of an empty hole
In my life I know how forgotten feels
Wondering if the world even knows who you areBut I've never known anything, felt anything
Like the love of Jesus
And it's hard to describe what's happening inside
But right now all I know isIt feels like redemption raining down on me
It feels like forgiveness is come to set me free
All my chains have been lifted
'Cause when the hands of love touch a broken life
It feels like redemptionNow I know how thankful feels
'Cause I am overwhelmed by this gift of grace
And I know how healing feels
'Cause all my pain and all my shame
And all my tears have been erasedIt feels like redemption raining down on me
It feels like forgiveness is come to set me free
All my chains have been lifted
'Cause when the hands of love touch a broken life
It feels likeSay goodbye, the past is ending
Say hello to a new beginning
No more night
The sun is shiningFeels like redemption raining down on me
It feels like forgiveness is come to set me free
All my chains have been lifted
'Cause when the hands of love touch a broken life
And when the hands of love touch a broken life
It feels like redemptionI cried out to the Lord, He heard my cry
He healed my heart and He touched my life
It feels like redemptionSo say goodbye, the past is ending
Say hello to a new beginning
Feels like
Feels like redemption
