

Stone Dead Forever

Metallica

Get on
Think you see me, in the glass
Think you hear me, better listen fast
I think I see you, gone to seed
Think your reason is your guilt and greed
You're out there on your own
Your face is turned to stone
What ever happened to your life?
Stone dead forever, alright
You're a financial wizard, yeah, a top tycoon
You're a sweet long lizard with a silver spoon
You know you've never had it quite so good
And you didn't know that you even could
Time has come to own
Your touch turned to gold

What ever happened to your life?
Stone dead forever, alright
Been a long time
Been a long long wait
And you caught your fingers
In the pearly gates
Better leave your number
And we'll call you
You know your problem
Ain't exactly new
Your time has come today
Your face has turned to hay
What ever happened to your life?
Stone dead forever, that's right
