

Stand Up

Melee

I got in a fight over
Some stupid insecurities
Stepped out of the light
When did we lose our old identity?
Now my white flags are waving around
'Cause you don't need
Your best friends bringing you down
Something in the air with the smoke and the fire
Got in my eyes, our eyes, singing
Stand up, stand up
(Stand up, stand up)
Can I be strong enough?
I'm trying hard to be myself again
To be myself again
I've been tripping over all the rules
Living my life somebody else's way
I've been sinking on this ship of fools
Following orders that I can't obey
Now my white flags are waving around
'Cause the choices
I've made ran me into the ground
Someone's at the crash site digging me out
I hope it's you, I hear you singing to me
Stand up, stand up
(Stand up, stand up)
Can I be strong enough?
I'm trying hard to be myself again

Stand up, stand up
(Stand up, stand up)
Brothers, be strong enough
(Stand up, stand up)
We're trying hard to be ourselves again
To be ourselves again
When plans go wrong
They won't set the sun
When plans go wrong
They won't ruin the day
Stand up, stand up

I gotta be strong enough
I'm trying hard to be myself again
So stand up, stand up
Brothers, be strong enough
We're trying hard
To be ourselves again, again
Stand up, stand up
(Stand up, stand up)
(Stand up, stand up)
(Stand up, stand up)
Stand up, stand up, stand up
Stand up, stand up
(Stand up, stand up)
(Stand up, stand up)
(Stand up, stand up)
Stand up, stand up
