The Passenger

Bad Astronaut

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Wait, planet earthquake
Planet heartbreak, give me this day
Dates pass through a maze
Are you okay? Are you awake?
Pride, yours flies to high
Yours is to great, yours is to die
I, I'm taking no side
I'm going under, for once alive
Wait, falling airplanesToday, my worries fade away
In suspended dream state
Somehow I knew
Erase, everything stops nowAnd now I crash with them
I am a bank deposit
I'm held accomplice to man's will
The faith transcending reason,
The passenger descending
And in an instant time stands still
Fade, planet heartbreak
Stop thinking
