

You ain't got me

Last Train South

You got your money now
You got your soul
You got everything baby
But your out of control
Cause you ain't got me
No you ain't got me
You got the money honey
But babe you ain't got me

You got your lace dress
Your diamond rings
You got your Cadillac
It don't mean a thing
Cause you ain't got me
No you ain't got me
You got the money honey
But babe you ain't got me

You got your great face
Your body and cash
You got the world
And all of its stash
But you ain't got me
No you ain't got me
You got the money honey
But babe you ain't got me

You got your luxuries
Your servants and maids
Your in the news
And all of the trades
But you ain;t got me
No you ain't got me
You got the money honey
Babe you ain't got me
You got the money honey
Babe you ain't got me

You got your money
Now you got your soul

You got everything baby
But your out of control
Cause you ain't got me
No you ain't got me
You got the money honey
Babe you ain't got me
You got your money honey
Babe you ain't got me
You got the money honey
But babe you ain't got me

You got the money honey
Babe you ain't got me
Babe you ain't got me
