London / New York

Nikki Pope

You bring your bright lights, electric energy.
Youâ€™ve got me dreaminâ€™ in a city that wonâ€™t ever sleep.
You sound like busy streets, you make me make believe.
Youâ€™ve got me singing in a city that wonâ€™t sing for me.
Cause heâ€™s got his suit cloak, so tell the queen hello.
Heâ€™s moving parliaments and props are walking down every road.
Heâ€™s like a fine dine right in the underground.
The prince of wells will build a castle and make me a crown.
So who do I chose, the old or the new?
OHHHH London, your nothing like New York. (*2)
But your taking all my love.
I was flying on a one-way paradise looking for the wrong in my mister right.
I was twiddling my fingers staring at the both of the pictures.
Just cut and paste myself right in the middle. OH
Iâ€™m riding taxi in the back seat.
I feel the skyline but I canâ€™t even feel my heart beat.
Itâ€™s all around me, electric energy
Has got me dreamin in a city that wonâ€™t ever sleep.
So who do I chose, the old or the new?
OHHHH London, your nothing like New York. (*4)
Your taking all my love, my love. (*5)
My love. My love. Oh Yeah.
OHHHH London, your nothing like New York. (*4)
But your taking all my love, my love. (*2)
Your taking all my love.
