Gojira

Quick moaning ... change
Stand up on your feet and rise
With every fall you can't complain
You never listen
Start Now
Open your eyes
The bodies are falling from the sky
We are the .. with the faces of the killing
No other blood in me but mine Time to open your eyes to this genocide
While you clear your mind you'll sail
You are receiving the gold of a better life
When you change yourself you change the world You eyes ... in the brain
And devils dancing in the rain
Could you fall so low? NO!
We will never let go
Let us watch them turn(?) Time to open your eyes to this genocide While you clear your mind you'll sail
You are receiving the gold of a better life
When you change yourself you change the world
