Kissing Is Easy

Magneta Lane

Now she's walking in the dark
Every time, it's her spark
Trying hard to find her will
There's the man she must killTell me what you're gonna do
Tonight
She's gonna
Make you wanna follow through
TonightShe's gonna
Make your heart wanna dance
But romance
Has no chanceSo, she'll walk into the night
She's going to want to win the fight
She's gonna talk to you
But still she'll keep on turnin'There she goes
A tainted rose
And when she stops
Nobody knowsShe's gonna talk to you
But 'til she'll keep on turnin'Hey!Now she's talkin' in her sleep
Every night, the thoughts creep
Tryin' hard to find that will
She's got secrets to spillTell me what you're gonna do
Tonight
She's gonna
Make you wanna follow through
TonightShe's gonna
Make your heart wanna dance
But romance
Has no chanceSo, she'll walk into the night
She's going to want to win the fight
She's gonna talk to you
But still she'll keep on turnin'There she goes
A tainted rose
And when she stops
Nobody knowsShe's gonna talk to you
But 'til she'll keep on turnin'Two thousand and one cigarrettes
Each one to hide
Every single one of her regrets
My love, wait!Don't you know the morning light?
Not tonight, not tonight, tonight

Don't you want to see her fight?
Not tonight, not tonight, tonight
