

Attack

System of a Down

Breathing each others' lives
Holding this in mind
That if we fall, we all fall
And we fall alone
The cold insincerity of steel machines
Have consumed our euphoria
Transforming us into muted dreams
Dreaming of the day that
We attack, attack, attack your fetal servitude
We attack, attack, attack, attack with pesticide
We attack, all the years of propaganda
We shall attack
Books illustrate what we already know
Candles cry towards the sky
Raising your flags along polluted coasts
Dreaming of the day that
We attack, attack, attack your fetal servitude
We attack, attack, attack, attack with pesticide
We attack, all the years of propaganda
We shall attack
Attack
Breathing each others' lives
Holding this in mind
That if we fall, we all fall
And we fall alone
Breathing each others' lives
Holding this in mind
That if we fall, we all fall
And we fall alone
What's the philosophy of displaced mines?
The bombing of all homes and villages
Truth is the only sword bleeding minds
Bleeding till the day that
We attack, attack, attack your fetal servitude
We attack, attack, attack, attack with pesticide
We attack, all the years of propaganda
We shall attack
Attack all the homes and villages
Attack all the schools and hospitals
You attack, all the rapes and pillages
We shall attack
We shall attack
