

Rhythm Of The Blues

Mary Chapin Carpenter

I can hear the rain come down, I can listen with my heart
I can see with both eyes closed in the dark Sleep will come in just a while but till it does I choose
To listen to the rain, it's the rhythm of the blues I walk along these streets of home that once belonged to us
And now baby I walk alone and I am lost
In the sound of my own footsteps on the avenues
I guess I'm only walking to rhythm of the blues I don't wanna hear another word spoken, I don't wanna see another tear shed
I can't seem to fix what's broken, like this record baby in my head Lonely looks as bad on me as lonely looks on you
And still we keep on moving to the rhythm of the blues

Songwriters

Carpenter, Mary Chapin Published by

Lyrics © Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>