

Call

Bamboo

Ooooh girl You better think twice
You don't know how much I've had to sacrifice
Don't tell me its too late for that compromise
I still got a trick or two As long as you play nice
Oooh girl What's taking so long I need an answer now
Oooh things are gonna get raw Everything about us Icing on top I don't know where I would go You just know how to play me so Up high Got me hooked on your bad romance
Its got me looking for that off ramp
People talking buzz
Could this be us? Could this be us? Call me when you get back, you got my number
Call me when you get back, pick up that phone
Call me when you get back, we got some secrets to share
Call me when you ready, lets get lost
Oooh girl
Hey pretty thing you wanna talk control
I'm all signed up just a mere formality I'm all in (heart, mind and soul)
I lay down To surrender To your every whim and need with this vow
I pledge to you Girl you can do as you do
As you Please baby I'm shooting from my sweet spot
I ain't looking for that drop off
Fool this fool baby
Could this be us Could this be us Call me when you get back, you got my number
Call me when you get back, pick up that phone
Call me when you get back, we got some secrets to share
Call me when you ready, lets get lost
(is this it)
I keep on coming relentless That's the game
(this is it)
I keep pushing my way in to the point you feeling hate
(this is it)
And I gotcha counting down every second When I'm away
(is this it)
You say I'm dreaming girl Yes that may be the case Call me when you get back you got my number Call me when you get back, you got my number
Call me when you get back, pick up that phone
Call me when you get back, we got some secrets to share
Call me when you ready,
Call me when you're ready
Just go go go go go

Go go go go OohI feint shudder To you this love Like no other

 We got something special cooking

 Let me introduce you to my lawyers

 I feint shudder to you A love like no other

Yes you can take me and break me you'll learn to love me or hate me or simply leave and forsake me take a real deep breath before you tell me

I've given up my position All I ask is for your discretion girlOoh I feint shudder to you ooh I feint shudder

 I feint shudder Ooh I feint shudder
