Awake

Chris Ayer

Places I come from and ways that I've been come at night telling me to give in saying 'don't waste your time with this' oh I know that they drown out my songs trying to help but I know that it's wrong so I won't waste my time with them what I have found isnâ€™t easy to forget I havenâ€™t lost, I just havenâ€™t won quite yet but itâ€™s not far away, Iâ€™m waking up more each day cuz I know, if this is the main event I want to be awake for it just let me be awake for it

I am alone and I donâ€™t make a sound God, it feels like my friends are around as I lie in my motel bed when I tune in to the parts that connect even the empty space can reflect the part that never ends

what I have found isnâ€™t easy to forget
cuz I know, if this is the main event

if this is your call to action what are you waiting for?

cuz I know, if this is the main event just let me know I've found isnâ€™t easy to forget I havenâ€™t lost, I just havenâ€™t won quite yet
cuz I know, if this is the main event

but I won't waste my time with that
