

Until I Find You

Stacie Orrico

I find it so unforgettable
When a man knows how to treat a lady
Knows something's right, he's never shady
I find it so undeniable when a man's so reliable
(The way he ought to be, the way he should be)
Every night when I close my eyes
I lift my voice to the sky
I pray He's listening, Amen
I will be hoping for you
I will be searching for you
I will be watching for you
Until I find you, find you
I will be patient for you
My eyes they won't ignore you
I know my heart will know you
When I find you, find you
I find it so, so respectable
When a man can take control
(He's sentimental, [unverified])
I find it so, so wonderful
When a man's so in love not [unverified] that's what I'm proud of
I will be hoping for you
I will be searching for you
I will be watching for you
Until I find you, find you
I will be patient for you
My eyes they won't ignore you
I know my heart will know you
When I find you, find you
And every time I feel like settling
I know God's got you in mind for me
All I have to do is wait patiently
When I find you, find you
Always listening, Amen
The way he ought to be, the way he should be
Always listening, Amen
When I find you, find you
I will be hoping for you
I will be searching for you

I will be watching for you
Until I find you, find you
I will be patient for you
My eyes they won't ignore you
I know my heart will know you
When I find you, find you
Until I find you, find you
When I find you, find you

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>