

Limo Life

Tight Finks

I'm sitting here and I wonder why
Could this be true?
I'm a dog, I am selfish
And did I really do this to you? One day I'll wake up from this dream
And I'll wonder where I am
This God forsaken everybody's taken
It's a nowhere land All I need is a little bit of action
You can't take five in this limo life
So what's the satisfaction The rock and roll hall's downtown
They don't know my name
I could be Valentino
To them it's just a game I stand naked on the street
I scream 'til I'm blue
Nobody sees, nobody hears
I'm only passing through All I need is a little bit of action
But you can't take five in this limo life
So what's the big attraction
Yeah, yeah, yeah Don't look at me, so seriously
What did I say?
I am lost, then I'm found
Doesn't matter anyway One day I'm gonna break on through
To the [Incomprehensible]
'Til that day comes along
Down the road I go, just looking All I need is a little bit of action
But you can't take five in this limo life
So what's the big attraction All I need is a little bit of action
But you can't take five in this limo life
So what's the big attraction All I need is a little bit of action
But you can't take five in this limo life
So what's the big attraction All I need is a little bit of action
But you can't take five in this limo life
So what's the big attraction
