In My Bones

Deb Callahan

Verse1:
I thought I saw an angel calling me across the yard
She said ?Baby, it?s been real but now I?m gone?
I should have known much better, you can?t tame something that wild
When I asked her if she loved me, she just smiled
Chorus:
But it?s my fault, I don?t care
I can?t hate you if you?re not here
Once you go, never ever turn around
I have sacrificed, I have burned
Oh, you gotta live before you learn
& I wanted the truth but sometimes the truth hurts
Verse2:
& my angel with her dirty wings, she used to make me smile
She kept all of her secrets locked inside
In a place I could not reach her, though I tried with all my might & when I begged for something really, she said goodbye
Chorus:
But it?s my fault, I don?t care
I can?t hate you if you?re not here
Once you go, never ever turn around

I have sacrificed, I have burned
Oh, you gotta live before you learn
& I wanted the truth but sometimes the truth hurts
Bridge:
& I am sure I?ll be just fine
If I remember, she wasn?t ever mine
& I am sure I?ll be just fine
If I remember, she wasn?t ever mine
Verse3:
& the truth about the two of us, is we don?t make no sense
When we made love, our love was just pretend
& now I?m trying to forget her, but I feel her in my bones
& I wonder if she thinks of me at all
Chorus:
But it?s my fault, I don?t care
I can?t hate you if you?re not here
Once you go, never ever turn around

I have sacrificed, I have burned
Oh, you gotta live before you learn
& I wanted the truth but sometimes the truth hurts
& I wanted the truth but sometimes the truth hurts

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/