

Move On

Anna von Hausswolff

Things they never say. Sleep it all away.
Things you'd like to know. Through a dream.

See it, in his eyes

Follow it by heart

Moving out of it

I want to know how it feels to move on.

How it feels. How it feels.

All of it is fake

Announced by a mistake.

I thought I had it all clear, hear, clear,

But there's some things you really don't need to hear.
