

Our Love and Our Souls

John Boyd

Damn car broke down again, the heat just did the same
I can feel that cold winter wind creeping in again
Sometimes it all comes down at once
Sometimes when it rains, it pours
But I wouldn't trade my troubles for any one of yours, oh no, no
Oh baby, money's just money, it comes and it goes
Things are just things, baby, so breakable
Ain't nothing last forever 'cept our love and our souls
'Cause I ain't that hungry and I have a home
I ain't fighting for my life and I'm not alone, ooh
So may I pray every morning
As I make up the bed

"Lord, all I need today is my daily bread"
Ooh darlin' don't you worry
'Cause money's just money, it comes and it goes
And things are just things, baby, so breakable
Ain't nothing last forever 'cept our love and our souls
Aaaah
Aaaah?
Money's just money, it comes and it goes
Things are just things, baby, so breakable
Our souls...
