No One Else But You

Brendan Benson

Thought I had it all figured out.
I knew what I was talkin' about.
Never had to worry.
You were you and I was me.
I spent my days being lazy.
Whatever made me happy.
Everything came easy.
Now I'm her and she's me.
Baby, don't you know?
That now I can't let go.
Nothing else will do.
No, no.
No one else but you.
No one else but you.
Thought I had it all figured out.
I stood proud and I stood strong,
Baby, before you came along.
Now I haven't got the strength
or the pride.
Now I just can't be satisfied.
Baby, can't you see?
That now I can't break free.
No one else will do.
No, no.
No one else but you.
No one else but you.
