

Solo Dolo

Dizzy Wright

Listen good, I don't have nobody
But what I might feel are the sounds of sanity
Hoping what I hear loops itself continuously
Then I won't be afraid no, no
Oh, woah, woah
Why must it feel so wrong when I try and do right, do right?
Oh, woah, woah
Soaring through paradise when I'm closing my eyes
I'm Mr. Solo Dolo, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
Look at me, you tell me just what you see
Am I someone whom you may love or enemy?
Am I speaking for you and yours or someone else?
I need some answers, yeah, yeah
Oh, woah, woah
Why must it feel so wrong when I try and do right, do right?
Oh, woah, woah
Soaring through paradise when I'm closing my eyes
I'm Mr. Solo Dolo, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
My world turns flippin' the bird
To the ones who figure me
Outkast, no not the duo
Back at Shaker Heights when they knew
Though little brother was a strange one, boo hoo

Cry me a river, hey, the look who
Try without an igloo
Cold, cold world wasn't fit for me at all
Look at where I stand at tall
Clutchin' my Kid Cudi bizzalls
Mute muthafuckas back home quick pause
Gargle on my mayo
Look at me, I bet I'm the one you picked to fail
Floatin' in my mind no sail, ahoy, ahoy
Listen good, I don't need nobody
This is what you feel are the sounds of insanity
Hopin' what I hear loops itself to finish me
No, I won't be afraid, hey, hey
Oh, woah, woah
Why must it feel so wrong when I try and do right, do right?

Oh, woah, woah
Soaring through paradise when I'm closing my eyes
I'm Mr. Solo Dolo
Why must it feel so right when I know that it's wrong, it's wrong?
When will I ever learn from the words in my songs?
I'm Mr. Solo Dolo
