The Last Candle (Remix 2011)

Blind Guardian

Guardian, guardian, guardian of the blind
Guardian, guardian, guardian of the blind
Guardian, guardian, guardian of the blind
Guardian, guardian, guardian of the blind
Have you forgotten him?Far from the land where the sun is born
Down in the wood Caladon
Do you know the place where the light is never seen
And all hopes are turned by the final cry?Turned to stone
Turned to stone
Turned to stone
Turned to stoneWhispering tunes in the wind
All hopes are gone with the night
When the old man will never come back
Remember his words and his songsAnd we see the raven's flying in the distance
But no wizard's singing his songSomebody's out in the night, I fly in time
The last candle will burn
There's hope for everyone
When the last candle burns high
Oh, it's time for lifeThe elves and gnomes have to hide
When the moon is showing its face
And raging orcs will set their trapsAnd the forest will burn
They hate green trees and love the dark
They don't understandThat they're caught and left alone
They feel the magic in the wind
They just fear the old man's songSomebody's out in the night, I fly in time
The last candle will burn
There's hope for everyone
When the last candle burns high
Oh, it's time for lifeCorrupted old gnome
Betrayer of all
You know so much about all
What is your price?Too much, too much
You cannot pay with your silver and your gold
There's just a little chance to save the wizard's life
There's just a little chance for all you fools, now paySo I walk across the land
And hope to hear the wizard's songSomebody's out in the night, I fly in time
The last candle will burn
There's hope for everyone
When the last candle burnsSomebody's out in the night, I fly in time

The last candle will burn
There's hope for everyone
When the last candle burns high
Oh, it's time for lifeSomebody's out there
Somebody's out there
(I feel there's somebody)
Somebody's out there
Somebody's out there
(I feel there's somebody)Somebody's out there
(I feel there's somebody)
Somebody's out there
(I feel there's somebody)
Somebody's out there
(I feel there's somebody, I)
