Hey You Guys

Circlesquare

Wide awake pre-daybreak
Love it when the earth shakes
Hides how you just canâ€™t sit still

Quit before it wide-spread
Learned to paint the town red
Xylene always made you ill

Goodbye to that old camp
Thatâ€™s the way it goes, champ
Some revivals donâ€™t work out

Young men of your design
Join while your new friends shout

This is it
This is ours
Here we go
x4

Wide awake and abstract
Ideas blur with flashbacks
Today could be then or last week

Distance makes the truth clear
Still gotta get out of here
As green glass gets bleaker than bleak

Oh-oh itâ€™s so hard to dance when
The systemâ€™s got no low-end
No subs means no love means no fun

And all the boys in the street
Keeping time on repeat
Keep in time till the last songs done

Time
For gradients
Time

For fades
Time
For segues between shades
Time
For time-stretching
Time as glue
Time for all the dudes as disillusioned as you

So say farewell to that last phase
Hey pal, these are the days
Everythingâ€™s moving so fast

Young men with such foresight
Forwarding your birthright
Join in cause this time itâ€™s gonna last

This is it
This is ours
Here we go
X 12

Hey you guys
X 8

Hey
You
Guys
Who wants to?
