Holiday

Irving

Holiday, take me to another place
And leave me there until I get old
You and me, I could wish we're meant to be Together until I get old

And we'll sail away into the sun some day
You and me on a holiday
Wait for me or tell me now time will pass
More peacefully

And if you go the world will fell sorry for me
At least on this we'll agree
And I'll hold my breath until you say when You'll stay young will I old by then?

I could pretend that you and I will never end
If I don't break perhaps we'll bend
Here I am on the shore you wave
To me to come aboard
