

Crooked Young

Bring Me the Horizon

Believe in the one

Hallelujah, Well I'm saved
Just (another scripture 20:18?)

It's a miracle, I'll be born again
As the Lord as my Shepard
I will find a way

Fuck your faith, no ones gonna save you
Fuck your faith

There's no hope for us
We speak in tongues, blacker than the sun
No death can touch the crooked young

There's no hope for us
We speak in tongues, blacker than the sun
No death can touch the crooked young

The crooked young

We don't sleep, we don't eat
We speak in tongues
We can't die, we're dead inside
No death can touch the crooked young

Believe in the one

Fuck yourself
The faceless won't save you
The clouds won't hear your fucking prayers

There's no hope for us
We speak in tongues, blacker than the sun
No death can touch

Hallelujah
I say it's a miracle, thank you Jesus
Hallelujah, I say

Fuck your faith, fuck your faith
