Exiled

Two Bicycles

I must leave from fear they send
Journey with the dawn
As I take the winding road
Bow my head forlorn, now I must go
I'm banished in exile
I wander this land
No faith in the future
I'm in their command
Cross over the mountains
And valleys so wide
I walk as I wander
With hope by my side
All my friends are far away
How I miss my home
Where do I find peace of mind
Guide me as I roam, I cry for you
I'm banished in exile
To meet their demand
Rejected messiah
They don't understand
I'm searching for something
That's lost in my heart
God knows I'm a sinner
I'm falling apart
If this is my destiny
I've got to believe
The passion inside me
Has left me to bleed
I'm banished in exile
I wander this land
No faith in my future
I'm in their command
Cross over the mountains
And valleys so wide
I walk as I wander
With hope by my side
If this is my destiny
I've got to believe
This passion inside of me

Has left me to bleed, oh
